

Hana Financial Group, armed with the Korean financial industry's most extensive overseas network, is growing into one of the world's leading financial groups. Sustaining this progress is the business growth the group has consistently shown since its inception in 1971 under the name of Korea Investment & Finance, followed by its conversion to a commercial bank in 1991 and a financial holding company in 2005.

A new chapter of Hana's history was written in September 2015 when Hana Bank and Korea Exchange Bank integrated to form KEB Hana Bank. The integration will contribute a great deal to synergy creation by fusing the two banks' complementary strengths and thus further enhancing management efficiency.
